

Welcome Bolton & Company as a new Porsche Owners Club Sponsor.

When we did the Member Demographic Survey earlier this year, seventy-seven percent (77%) of our POC Members said they would like an insurance quotation from a broker who is a POC Sponsor.

Enter Bolton and Company, one of the largest and most admired insurance brokers serving Southern California.

Winner of Agency of the Year award by the Independent Insurance Agents and Brokers of California, Best Places to Work by the Los Angeles Business Journal, Top U.S. Broker – Education by Risk & Insurance Magazine, Corporate Citizen of the Year by the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, One of the Top Five Brokers in the United States by National Underwriters and the list goes on, we are blessed to have such a prestigious partner join the POC as a Sponsor.

With Bolton's size, approximately 200 employees and five hundred million ($500 million) of premium, they have developed unparalleled expertise, with specialists in every type of insurance and for every type of business. They have access to a wide variety of insurance markets that smaller brokers can't access. And, while some brokers of this size consider personal insurance to be an annoyance, Bolton & Company welcomes it.

So give them a call. Our POC primary contact at Bolton will be Jessica Gunnar (626) 535-1817. There's no cost or obligation to get an excellent quotation and expert advice.

Owning a Porsche isn't just a hobby or an investment. It's a passion – symbolic of a greater pursuit of excellence and precision. Bolton is in the business of helping you protect what you love and find the next gear in minimizing your personal and professional risk.

Insuring Your Porsche for Market Value

Often Porsches are worth more on the market than blue book value. Let us work with you to assess the current market value of your Porsche and find an insurance solution that includes:

- Experienced in-house claims department and car experts to determine value
- No depreciation of your car's value
- Choose your own repair facility
- Coverage for spare parts and restoration projects
- Competitive pricing

Protecting Your Business

Insurance * Risk Management * Employee Benefits & HR Consulting

If you own your own business to fuel your Porsche passion...We salute you!

Bolton is one of the nation's largest employee-owned insurance brokers. That's why we look at every conceivable solution – including leveraging your internal resources, looking at our bench strength, evaluating third party vendors and emerging technologies – because we succeed together.
