Porsche Owners Club

A Non-Profit Organization in the State of California

2026 BYLAWS

(amended 9/1/20)

It was early spring in 1955 that the seed was planted, and in not so unique a place as a restaurant and bar in the San Fernando Valley. The parts of this seed were partly composed of an accountant, an attorney, a body and fender repairman, an engineer, a publicity man, a manufacturer and even a representative of Porsche.

Within several months it was obvious that the conditions were ripe. In July of 1955, some 50 Porsches and Porsche owners solidly joined as the Porsche Owners Club Inc. The growing began.

Monthly driving events, monthly meetings, a monthly newsletter and a badge all came about without outside influence or aid. A year and 150 members later the prestige of Porsche and the Porsche Owners Club was felt as the largest one-area, non-racing, non-subsidized single marque club in the west; possibly the United States, maybe even the world.

The Porsche Owners Club accomplishments over the years deserve mentioning. We have come from an informal breakfast to weekends in Ensenada, Las Vegas, Oakhurst and San Luis Obispo, Palmdale, Tecate, Del Mar, Palm Springs, Carlsbad and Riverside. Besides being social weekends, these all had driving events from gimmick gymkhanas to full-fledged time trials. In between we have had our gymkhanas, introduced the slalom to Southern California and promoted rallies on exciting Porsche-type country roads. The POC has lead sports car clubs in the Southern California areas in holding time trials at more major tracks including Willow Springs, P.I. R., Las Vegas, Laguna Seca and before their demise, Ontario and Riverside.

The Club also publishes a pictorial magazine and many other event flyers and posters annually. Its membership has increased to a national basis, with many distant members beyond the California border.
